Implementation Plan on Observations of Assessment Team on Self-Assessment Report

Program: MS Islamic Studies

AT Findings & Recommendations		Intended Corrective Actions	Intended Implementation Date	Responsible Body	Resources Needed
1	The members of the Board of Studies, as reflected in BoS minutes, are not consistent. The list of present and absent members is not properly reflected. It is recommended to have a consistent format.	The department will develop a unified format clearly indicating the present and absent members in the minutes of the meeting.	8 th January 2027	Dr. Noor ur Rehman	-
2	The focus on research is reflected with the qualified faculty. However, the number of publications by the faculty members seems to be on the lower side. It is recommended to devise a Research Policy that would encourage the faculty to publish in quality journals.	A policy will be proposed by the department to the Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences to encourage the Faculty Members to publish in quality journals. However, the approval of the policy is beyond the control of the department and dependent on higher management approval.	5 th February 2027	Dean, Faculty Of Social Sciences	Approval of higher management on the proposed Research Policy after deliberation at relevant forums.
3	The course code does not reflect the broad area categories (e.g., general courses). This limits students from moving courses between departments or transferring credits to other universities. It is recommended to develop consistent course codes.	The department will seek guidance from the Registrar's office to develop unified course codes.	13 th November 2026	Dr. Abdul Majid	Unified course codes from the Registrar's office
4	The students' progress is monitored by the Department of Islamic Studies and discussed in the BASR. However, the progress of each MS student needs to be effectively monitored for timely	A committee will be formed at the department level to effectively monitor the progress of each student.
